

Baptismal Immersion Heater

Rating: 3Kw

Complete with 5 metres of cable.

Immersed parts: Stainless steel
Controls: Standard construction – none
Automatic construction – capillary type thermostat
Voltage: Standard 240V single phase

Installation: It is recommended that the electrical supply is protected by an RCD and that the heater is fully earthed. The element must be fully submerged before being energised.

- Robust stainless steel construction
- IP66 Terminal enclosure
- Long life incoloy 825 sheathed rod type elements
- Wide, stable, self supporting base
- Long unheated length for use with low liquid levels

Functions

The portable immersion heater is suitable for heating large or small quantities of liquid, stored in open topped vessels and baths, where permanently installed immersion heaters are not practical or desirable.

